

Station A

1. What snake is this?
  - A. Common Garter Snake
  - B. Butler's Garter Snake
  - C. Northern Ribbon Snake
  - D. Queen Snake
2. True or False: This snake can be considered a crayfish specialist.
  - A. True
  - B. False
3. What is a rostral scale?
  - A. Lip Scale
  - B. Nose Scale
  - C. Vent Scale
  - D. Eye Scale
4. Which of the following statements is NOT true about this snake?
  - A. They may hibernate near water in crayfish burrows.
  - B. They are mostly active at night.
  - C. They can increase their length by more than 50% during their first year of life.
  - D. This snake is vulnerable to various forms of pollution and habitat alternation.
5. They are most often found near what type of stream?
  - A. Warm, shallow rocky bottomed streams
  - B. Cold, deep, sandy bottomed streams
  - C. Warm, deep, mucky bottom streams
  - D. Cold, shady, rocky bottomed streams